AT DALLAS, TEXAS

On March 30, 1981, [redacted] also known as [redacted] [redacted] Dallas, Texas, [redacted] advised he has handled corporate matters for John Warnock Hinckley, Sr., doing business as Vanderbilt Resources, Inc., for about twelve years. [redacted] advised that Hinckley, Sr. now resides in Evergreen, Colorado, and [redacted] is married to [redacted] who lives in Dallas. [redacted] advised that he does not know John W.
Hinckley, Jr.

[redacted] described Hinckley, Sr. as having high moral character, a leader in the petroleum industry, a petroleum engineer, and deeply religious. [redacted] advised Hinckley, Sr. had given time and money to the needy in Biafra and has travelled to Guatemala recently. [redacted] advised he knew of no questionable activities on the part of Hinckley, Sr., and, in fact, Hinckley, Sr. is a personal friend of the governor of Colorado.
